

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 6:15; sunset, 5:47.

Overseer Voliva of Zion bars engagement rings among flock as unnecessary expense.

Serg't J. V. Lacey, Brighton Park station, suspended by Chief Schuetler, who declined to comment on action: Said to have been partner in hotel.

J. S. Draper sues Pugh Stores Co. for $50,000, which he says is due him as commission on stock sales.

U. S. marshal seizes 24,000 pounds of oranges and grape fruit said to have become rotten in transit from Florida to Denny & Co., 167 S. Water.

Wonderful field for American products in Siberia, Jonas Lied, director Siberian steamship company, told Chi. Ass'n of Commerce at luncheon address.

Forest preserve comm'r's prohibit killing birds or animals or defacing trees on preserve, under penalty of $5 to $200 fine.

Tony Plumbo, 2500 Lowe av., given year in Bridewell after Agnes Leon, 17, told in morals court how she had been kept prisoner in his home two months.

Geo. T. Fischer, 142 W. 103d, said he and wife "got religion" at revival, and he kept it till wife ran away with Revivalist Oscar Wallen. Plea for divorce granted.

Mrs. E. J. Hoskins, 117 E. Erie, granted divorce from her medical student husband, whom she accused of running around with former sweethearts.

A. H. Jackson has deserted her 80 times since marriage in 1889, said Mrs. J. Decree.

Sam'l Ball, investigator, says he was beaten up while seeking evidence in soft drink parlor of Nick and Fred Brosius, Evanston. Wants $10,000 damages.

Tessie Grantin arrested on charge of robbing Emil Redmond, 1704 Newport av., of $80 on cabaret tour.

Mrs. Clarence Tohler, 1533 Wileland, said husband was cruel and mother-in-law put dirty soap in her biscuits. Decree.

Mrs. Leo Walgren and three children taken to Evanston hospital, all suffering with diphtheria.

500 Chicagoans of foreign birth took out first papers of naturalization in superior court last night.

Col. W. N. Selig, movie magnate, will present Chief Schuetler with a cub lion.

Geo. Christiansen, 4058 Federal, asked police to lock him up for fear he would murder Dr. E. A. Bach, 2901 Wentworth av., who is said to have performed operation on Christiansen's wife, from which she has not recovered.

Geo. Harrison, once wealthy British brewer and friend of King Edward, died in poverty in cheap hotel.

Edw. Cummings, 9, 5441 S. May, played with gun. Dead.

Walter O'Brien, ex-detective serg't, convicted in clairvoyant case, begun Joliet sentence today.

Six employes Peoples Gas, Light & Coke Co. denied leak caused 14th place explosion horror.

Chief Justice Fitch, criminal court, will assign new Erbstein case today.

Leslie Deik, 14, arrested on charge of trying to poison grandmother, Mrs. Nannie Williams, 1703 Fulton.

MAYOR WOULD SEND ALL LID FILTERS TO THE PEN

A heavy fine for the first two violations of the Sunday closing law and a prison sentence for the next conviction was recommended yesterday by Mayor Thompson in a letter to the house judiciary committee at Springfield. His nibs was due to talk before the committee, but excused himself, letting the letter substitute. The note says, among other things, that the present penalty for violation of the Sabbath saloon law, a fine of $200, is too light.